

Objective of internship

INDIA Redefined , a non political Citizen’s Empowerment movement established in 2009, has created many Responsible and Empowered Citizens. And still needs many more in leadership roles for creating a Happy India. INDIA Redefined is a vision created by ordinary people who understood this simple concept of making a difference in the lives of others and our Indian society by bringing in a fourth sector – to harness the power of the people. Although Indian economy is doing great and emerged as one of the most powerful economies in the world but the human development index of Indian people are still very low. India’s future will depend on the holistic development of all levels in the society, improvements of their lives, enhancement of environment and overall growth of the society.

INDIA Redefined is offering Summer internships to the students who are keen to contribute towards the development of our country and its society. Young, energetic and well educated students who are consisting over 50% of India’s population has a large role to play. India needs their efforts and talent to become world’s most powerful nation.

INDIA Redefined is also offering the opportunity to get exposed and to acquire skills in one of the most emerging sectors called social entrepreneurship as well as to establish a career that will make a great difference to our country and its people while will offer young talents like you a bright career too. India Redefined, brings together common people fulfilling their ISR (Individual Social Responsibility) for the country on one platform.
