

Mr Subodh Tyagi is an Entrepreneur in International Logistics, as one of the few professionals in India who actually specialise in handling Film Shooting Projects, TV Commercials and Documentaries worldwide. He has over 25 years experience in logistics and handling Customs matters and has worked in most senior & top positions with reputed originations in the trade. He has excellent experience in solving intricacies of Customs and Excise matters relating to Import & Export. His amalgamation of rich and long experience in varied sectors of International Logistics makes him a true professional to reach pinnacle of his field.

As the founder of his company "Entire Logistics Pvt. Ltd." his sole philosophy is to provide his customers the "Better Than The Best" in terms of Service, Economy and Reliability. He believes in understanding the customer's point of view and is leveraging his expertise in a range of services to create solutions with a global approach to suit the requirements of the customer He leads a team of Professionals who have worked for over 25 years in industry, with their in depth knowledge of industry and contacts across world are important assets for achieving customer satisfaction.

He has also taught "Concepts of International Logistics" at various professional institutes during is tenure in Mumbai. After getting introduced to INDIA Redefined by Mrs Ranjana Kanti and Mr Anurag Kanti, he is more than willing to make his best efforts for a Better India under the banner of INDIA Redefined.