

Publication: Times of India Mumbai; Date: Apr 19, 2010; Section: Education Times; Page: 37;

take charge, to play an active role, and make a difference in the socio-economic problems in the country. All you have to do is submit the chosen problem, its solution and implementation method. The winners of the competition also have an opportunity to win prizes worth $2000.

For further information, log on to <http://www.studentorg.umd.edu/desi/bharatjugaad.htm>

Develop Empower Synergise India (DESI), an Indo-American organisation based in USA aims to study, discuss and contribute towards various aspects of India such as culture, society, development security and portrayals of India in the west. In its continuing effort to promote the social and economic development of India, DESI is organising an idea competition Bharat Jugaad, which is an effort to motivate the Indian youth to India Redefined is a non-political citizen's empowerment movement. The movement was awarded 'The Best Humanitarian Initiative 2009' and was started to awaken Indians to exercise their rights and fulfill their obligation & responsibilities. India Redefined is looking for young fellow Indians to come together to create the strongest platform to empower citizens, so that we really can have the India of our dreams. All work is purely voluntary and no money is asked or paid since this is your own movement and you should be doing it for yourself. For more information visit www.indiaredefined-a4c.org or contact ranjanakanti@ndiaredefined-a4c.org